packing about 90,000 litres of milk whether toned or standard or double toned milk. Out of this, Delhi Milk Scheme is recently filling about 80,000 litres of toned milk, standardised milk and double toned milk in pouches. Therefore, Delhi Milk Scheme could not supply its entire quantity of toned milk in pouches.

(d) A decision has already been taken to switch over to poly-packs in a phased programme as and when the present bottling plants have outlived their normal life.
